Hans Christian Andersen Fairy Tales

Andersen, H.C.

SINOPSI

This elegant hardback edition brings together 8 classic fairy tales by Hans Christian Anderson, luxuriously presented with gold gilded page-edges and classic, full-colour illustrations by Eleanor Vere Boyle. Hans Christian Anderson is the ultimate author of the literary fairy-tale. His utterly original stories with their beauty, tragedy and strangeness have captivated the imagination of readers, from the nursery and the classroom to the worlds of theatre, ballet, film and modern fantasy.

This collection contains a selection of his best-loved tales, translated by Augusta Lucus and H. L. D.

Plesne and featuring 12 full-page illustrations by Eleanor Vere Boyle. • The Angel• The Garden of Paradise• The Snow Queen• The Wild Swans• The Ugly Duckling• The Fellow-Traveller• The Little Mermaid • Thumbkinetta This deluxe edition with gilded page edges, patterned endpapers and ivory paper makes a wonderful gift or collectible for fairy tale lovers, young and old. ABOUT THE SERIES: The Arcturus Everlasting Library series brings together deluxe hardback gift editions of classic works, finished with gilded page edges and classic full-colour illustrations.

Designed to be both read and displayed, the series forms a show-stopping collection to grace any home library.
...

Editorial	13988-Arcturus Publishing Ltd
Matèria	Literatura-Cuento infantil
EAN	9781398850811
Estat	Disponible
Enquadernació	Tapa dura
Pàgines	208
Mida	258x198x28 mm.
Weight	958
Language	Inglés
Price (Tax inc.)	33,80€
Release date	11/11/2026