

Different

Eveland, Eva

SYNOPSIS

Celebrate being different, and discover the power of finding someone who feels a little bit different too...One morning, Mia wakes up feeling different. She tries to fit in and be like everyone else, but nothing feels quite right, and no one else seems to have noticed... Mia feels out of place and alone, until one day, someone finally sees her.

Someone who feels different too! Together, they discover that being different is exactly the thing that makes them special. From the Klaus Flugge Prize and V&A Illustrations Award-winning author and illustrator Eva Eland, who created When Sadness Comes to Call and Where Happiness Begins...
