

Lost Lambs

Madeline Cash

SYNOPSIS

'A voice like no other' Lena Dunham 'Hilarious' Megan Nolan 'Fiendishly readable' Financial Times == Think your family is dysfunctional? Meet the Flynns. For the three Flynn daughters, it's been disastrous since their parents opened up their marriage. Abigail, the eldest, is dating an ex-soldier several years her senior nicknamed 'War Crimes Wes'.

Louise, the middle child, maintains a secret correspondence with an online terrorist. And the brilliant youngest, Harper, is being sent to a wilderness reform camp due to her insistence that someone – or something – is monitoring the town's citizens. Casting a shadow across their lives is Paul Alabaster, a nefarious local billionaire.

Rumours of corruption circulate, but no one dares dig too deep. No one except Harper, whose obsession with Alabaster's machinations sends the family hurtling into a criminal conspiracy – one that may just, finally, bring them closer together. The instant Sunday Times bestseller Readers are loving LOST LAMBS 'What a ROMP! The best way to start your reading year for 2026.' 'The hype is real!' 'Hilarious, weird, original and addictive!'
