

Show Don't Tell

Sittenfeld, Curtis

SINOPSIS

YOUR NEXT READ FROM THE INSTANT SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR OF ROMANTIC COMEDY, PREP and AMERICAN WIFE _____ A New York Times Editor's choice 'Messy and delicious' New York Times 'Sittenfeld is in a league of her own' Guardian 'One of my favourite authors' KATE ATKINSON, author of Death at the Sign of the Rook 'Anything Sittenfeld writes, we'll read' People 'She understands women so well; like having someone look straight into your soul' Reader review  _____ Razor-sharp, glittering tales exploring marriage, fame and female friendship, from the Sunday Times bestselling author. In this compulsive collection of twelve witty stories, Sittenfeld shows why she's as beloved for her short fiction as she is for her novels, as she conjures up characters so real that they seem like old friends. In 'The Patron Saints of Middle Age,' a woman visits two friends she hasn't seen since her divorce.

In 'A for Alone,' a married artist embarks on a project intended to disprove the so-called Mike Pence Rule, which suggests that women and men can't spend time alone together without lusting after each other. And in 'Lost but Not Forgotten,' Sittenfeld gives readers of her novel Prep a new window into the world of her beloved character Lee Fiora, decades later, when Lee attends an awkward school reunion. Witty, confronting and full of tenderness, Sittenfeld peels back layer after layer of our inner lives, keeping us riveted to the page with her utterly distinctive voice.
