

What Shall We Do, Winnie-the-Pooh?

Willis, Jeanne

SINOPSIS

What Shall We Do, Winnie-the-Pooh? is a delightful rhyming adventure, celebrating friendship and differences, and featuring the best-loved characters from the Hundred Acre Wood. Join Winnie-the-Pooh for a walk through the Hundred Acre Wood as he ponders over what to do about each of his friends. Poor, timid Piglet is scared of everything, Tigger is far too bouncy sometimes, and Eeyore is always gloomy .

. . but Pooh soon realises that he loves his friends because of their differences, and that the most important thing is to be yourself! With gentle rhyming verse by bestselling author Jeanne Willis, inspired by A.A.

Milne's original Winnie-the-Pooh hum from The House at Pooh Corner, this is a delightful and heart-warming rhyming adventure about true friendship and having fun, with charming illustrations from Mark Burgess, in the style of E.H. Shepard. This authorised sequel is the perfect gift for anyone who loves the enchanting world of Winnie-the-Pooh and his best friends, Christopher Robin and Piglet.
